

El Jardín

S&C

“EL Jardín” is a fascinating residential estate located just eight kilometers away from the historic center of Seville. Inspired by English design and with a pronounced Mediterranean personality, this innovative space is ideal to host corporate, private, and exclusive events, as well as audiovisual productions. Its prominent and carefully designed vegetation makes it a romantic, stately, and highly private location. Every corner of “El Jardín” offers a wide range of possibilities.

This elegant space boasts over 13,000 square meters divided into eight extensive and exquisitely fragrant gardens, along with its own private parking for Shabby&Chic clients' use.

In addition to the mentioned gardens, "El Jardín" features porticoed terraces, pergolas with dining areas, barbecue facilities, and a fabulous pool that reflects Seville's eternal summer. In this new location we present, the different spaces are personalized and transformed according to your preferences to make any event unique and memorable.

Every corner of this sophisticated space in Seville is bathed in the brightness that only Andalusia can provide throughout the year. Ideal to surprise attendees with its numerous native plants and exotic species, it can host product launches, award ceremonies, gala dinners, film and photography shoots, and more.

Upon entering, you'll feel like you're in the midst of nature, drawn in by the tranquility and charm that its landscape exudes. The scents of citrus, lavender, and many other aromatic herbs blend in the air as you're greeted by a magnificent and centuries-old Ombú tree.

With a colonial style, “El Jardín” is the ideal space if you desire a large location capable of accommodating a high number of attendees with a natural and clean ambiance. Its versatility allows it to be decorated with all kinds of decor, always to the client’s taste. A splendid building for elegant and refined events.
