

La Vidriera

S&C

Discover the majesty of La Vidriera, an oasis of elegance and charm near the heart of Málaga. With a history dating back to the 19th century, this estate captivates with its unique blend of history and modernity.

Immerse yourself in an environment where nature becomes a partner in your most special moments. From spacious halls to outdoor terraces, every corner of this venue is imbued with a magical atmosphere that invites celebration and delights the senses.

La Vidriera is the ideal setting for all types of corporate events, whether it be a product presentation or a corporate meeting. Both the interior and exterior spaces adapt to your needs, ensuring an unforgettable atmosphere filled with special moments.

The estate features a beautiful mansion from the 1800s, originally owned by a 19th-century painter and inventor, preserved in its entirety with the style of that era. It includes three dining rooms for intimate celebrations, each accommodating approximately 35 guests, as well as another indoor dining room for 90 people.

Additionally, the space boasts several outdoor areas for corporate events, including the landscaped pavilion and the large 500-square-meter glass pergola.

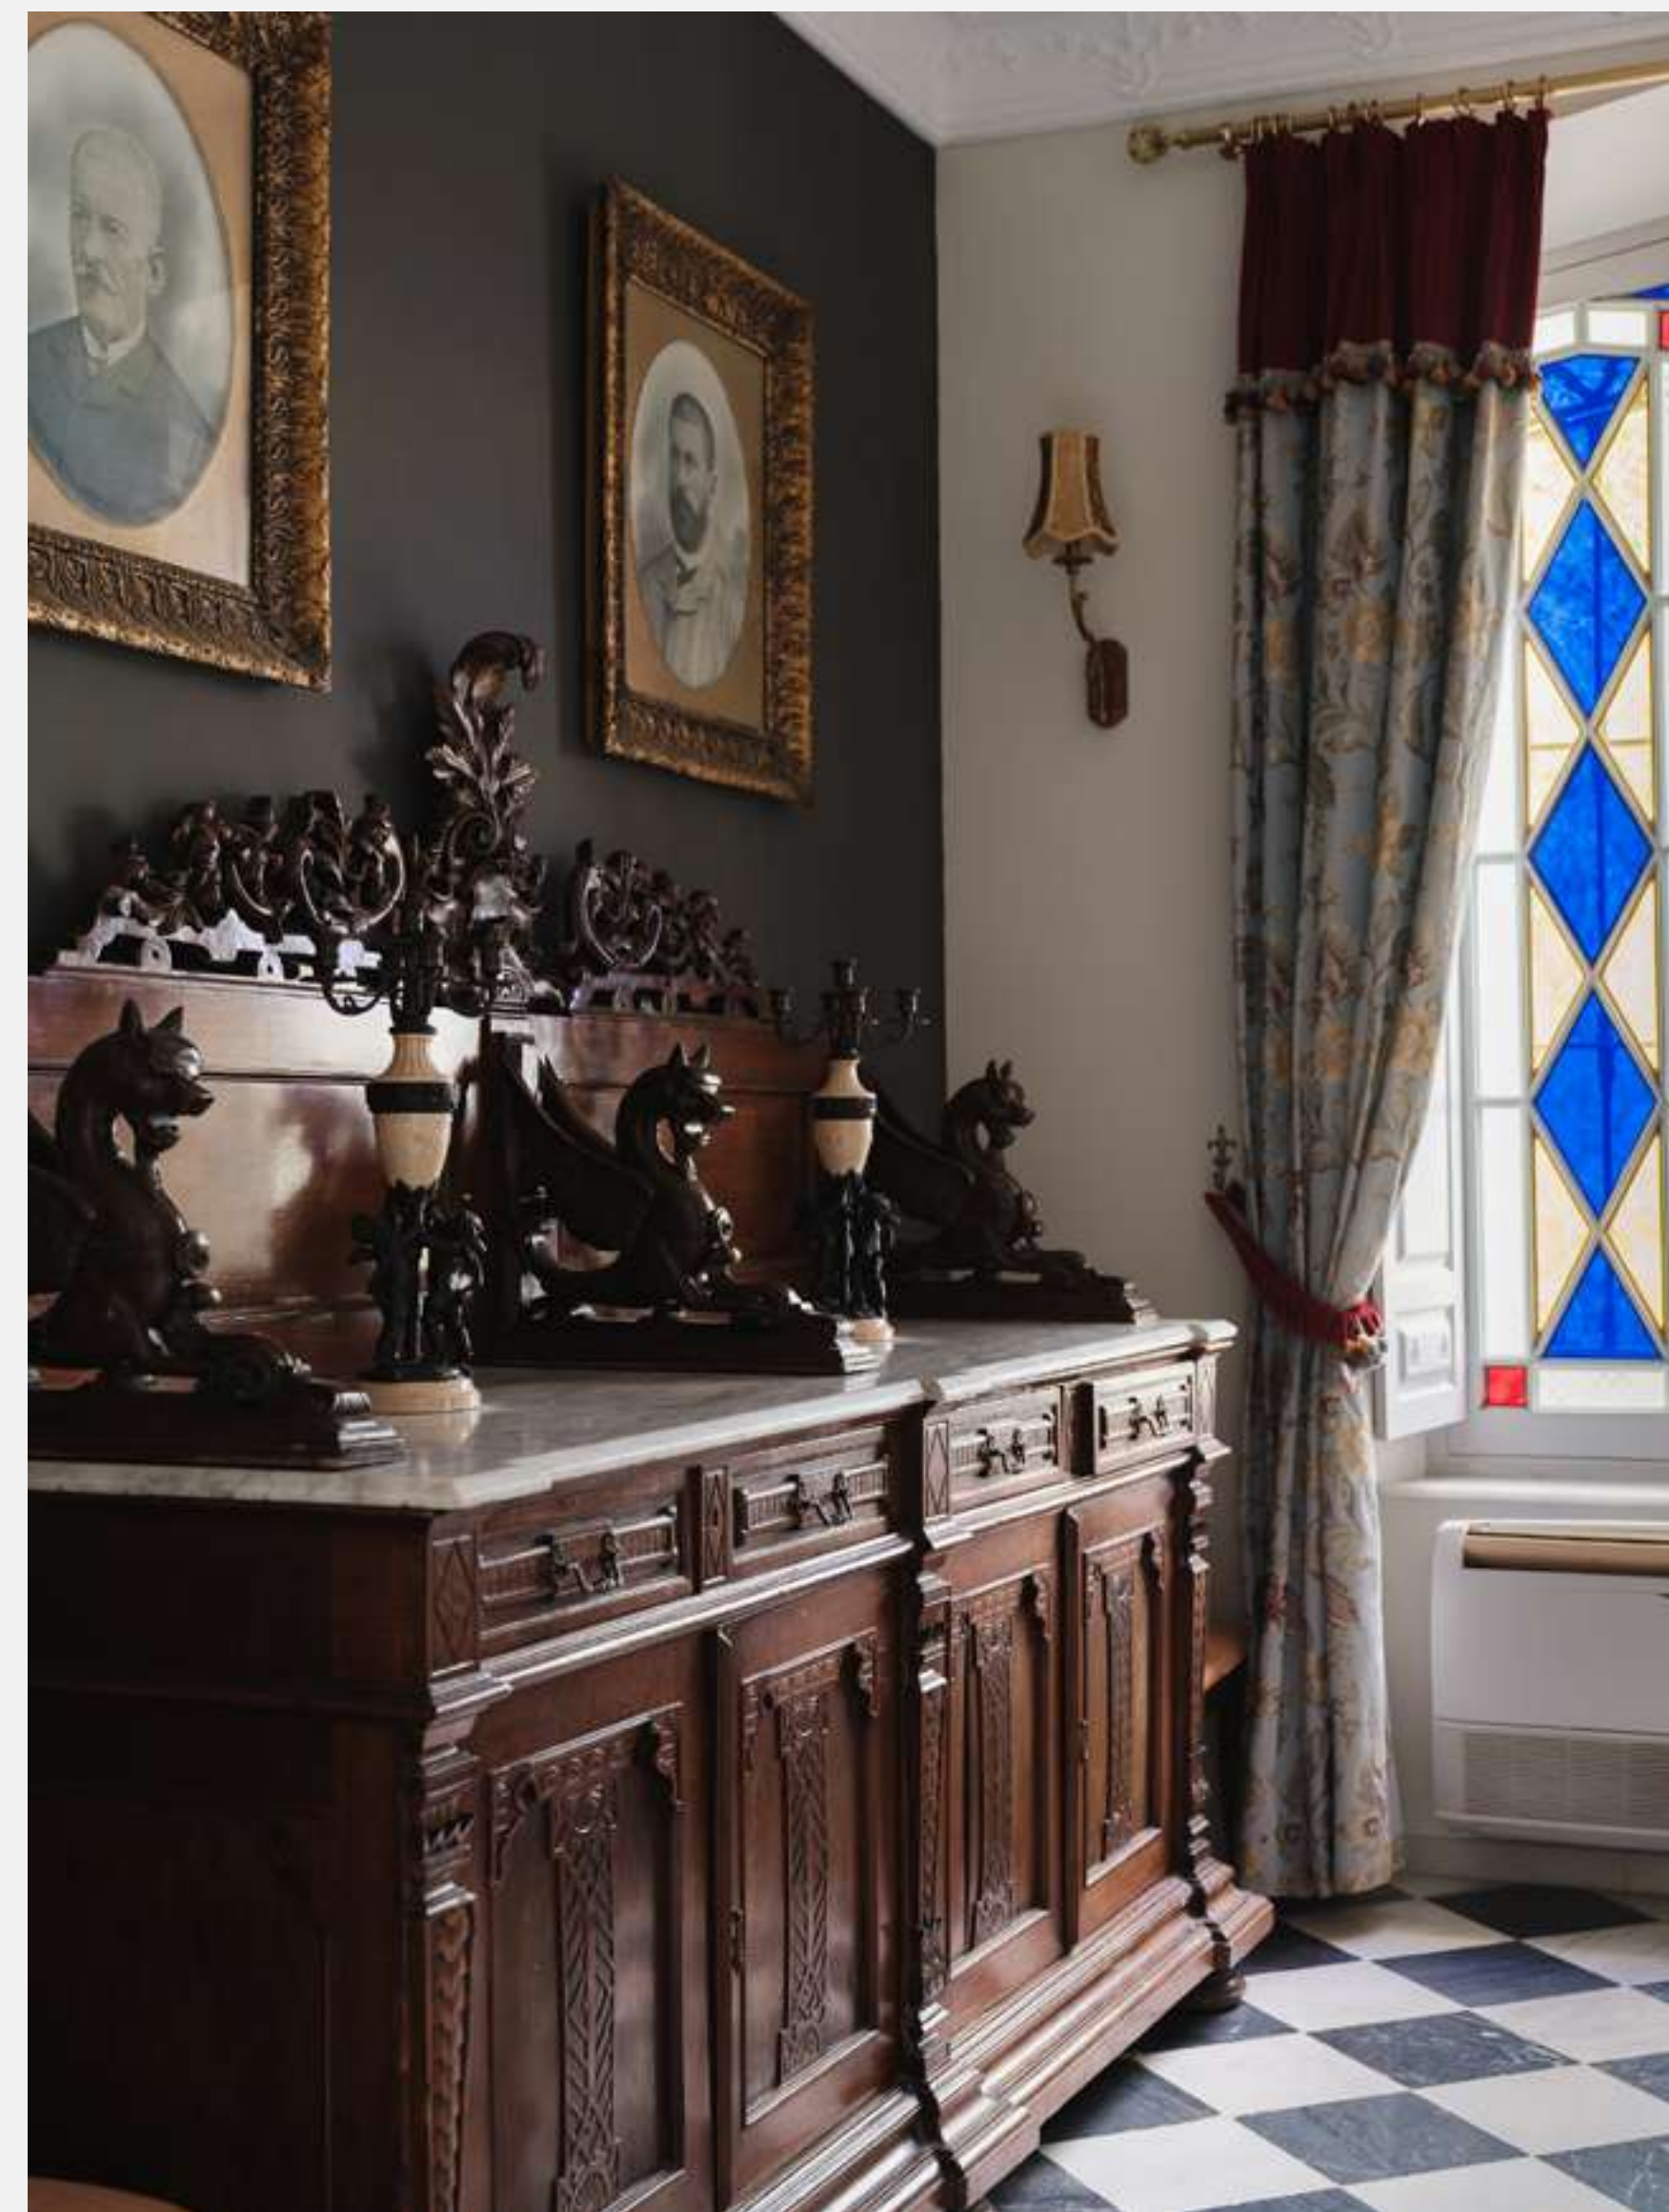

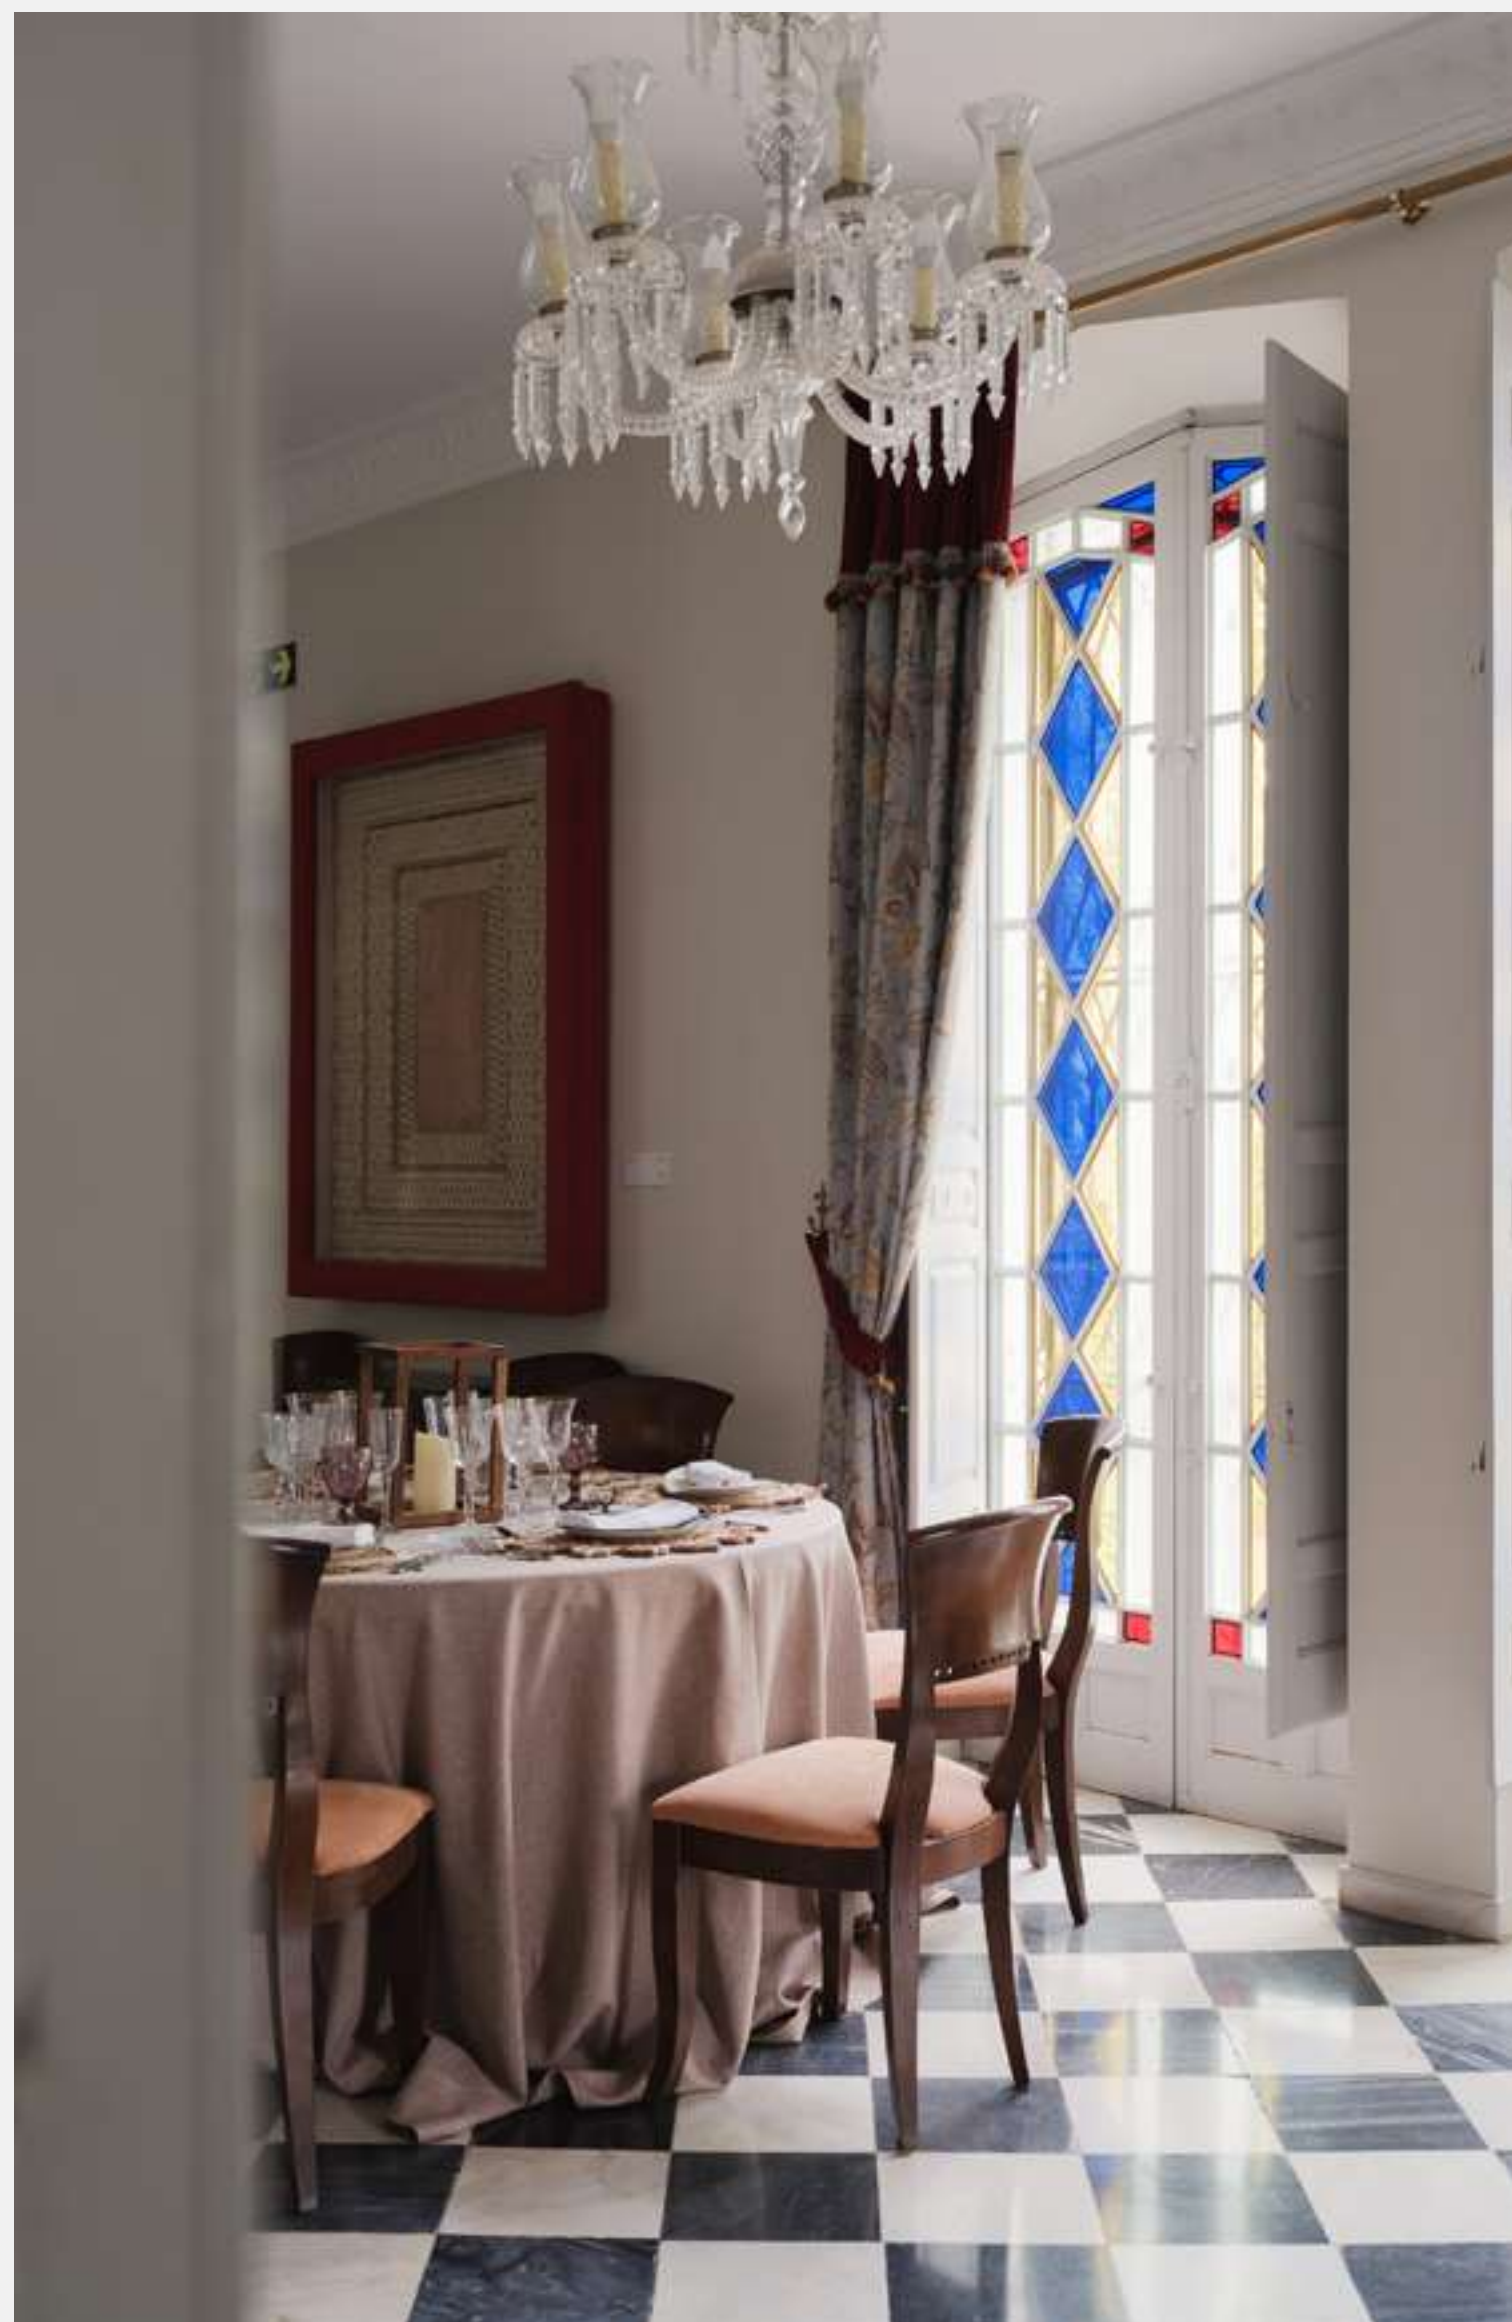

This beautiful 19th-century mansion exudes charm, from its intimate and elegant dining rooms to the antique decorations that evoke the splendor of bygone eras.

Come and discover the magic of La Vidriera, where history meets elegance in an incomparable setting.
