

Petit Jardin

S&C

With great charm and a history that dates back to the 19th century, this greenhouse captivates with its unique fusion of history and modernity. Immerse yourself in a verdant environment where tropical lushness meets 19th-century elegance. This small greenhouse, made of iron, glass, and exposed brick, is now the perfect setting for your most exclusive events.

Visualize your conferences, cocktail parties, or presentations in a unique setting, surrounded by a collection of exotic species that evoke the passion for botany of past eras. Our greenhouse offers a climate-controlled environment and special, unique lighting, creating the ideal backdrop for any occasion.

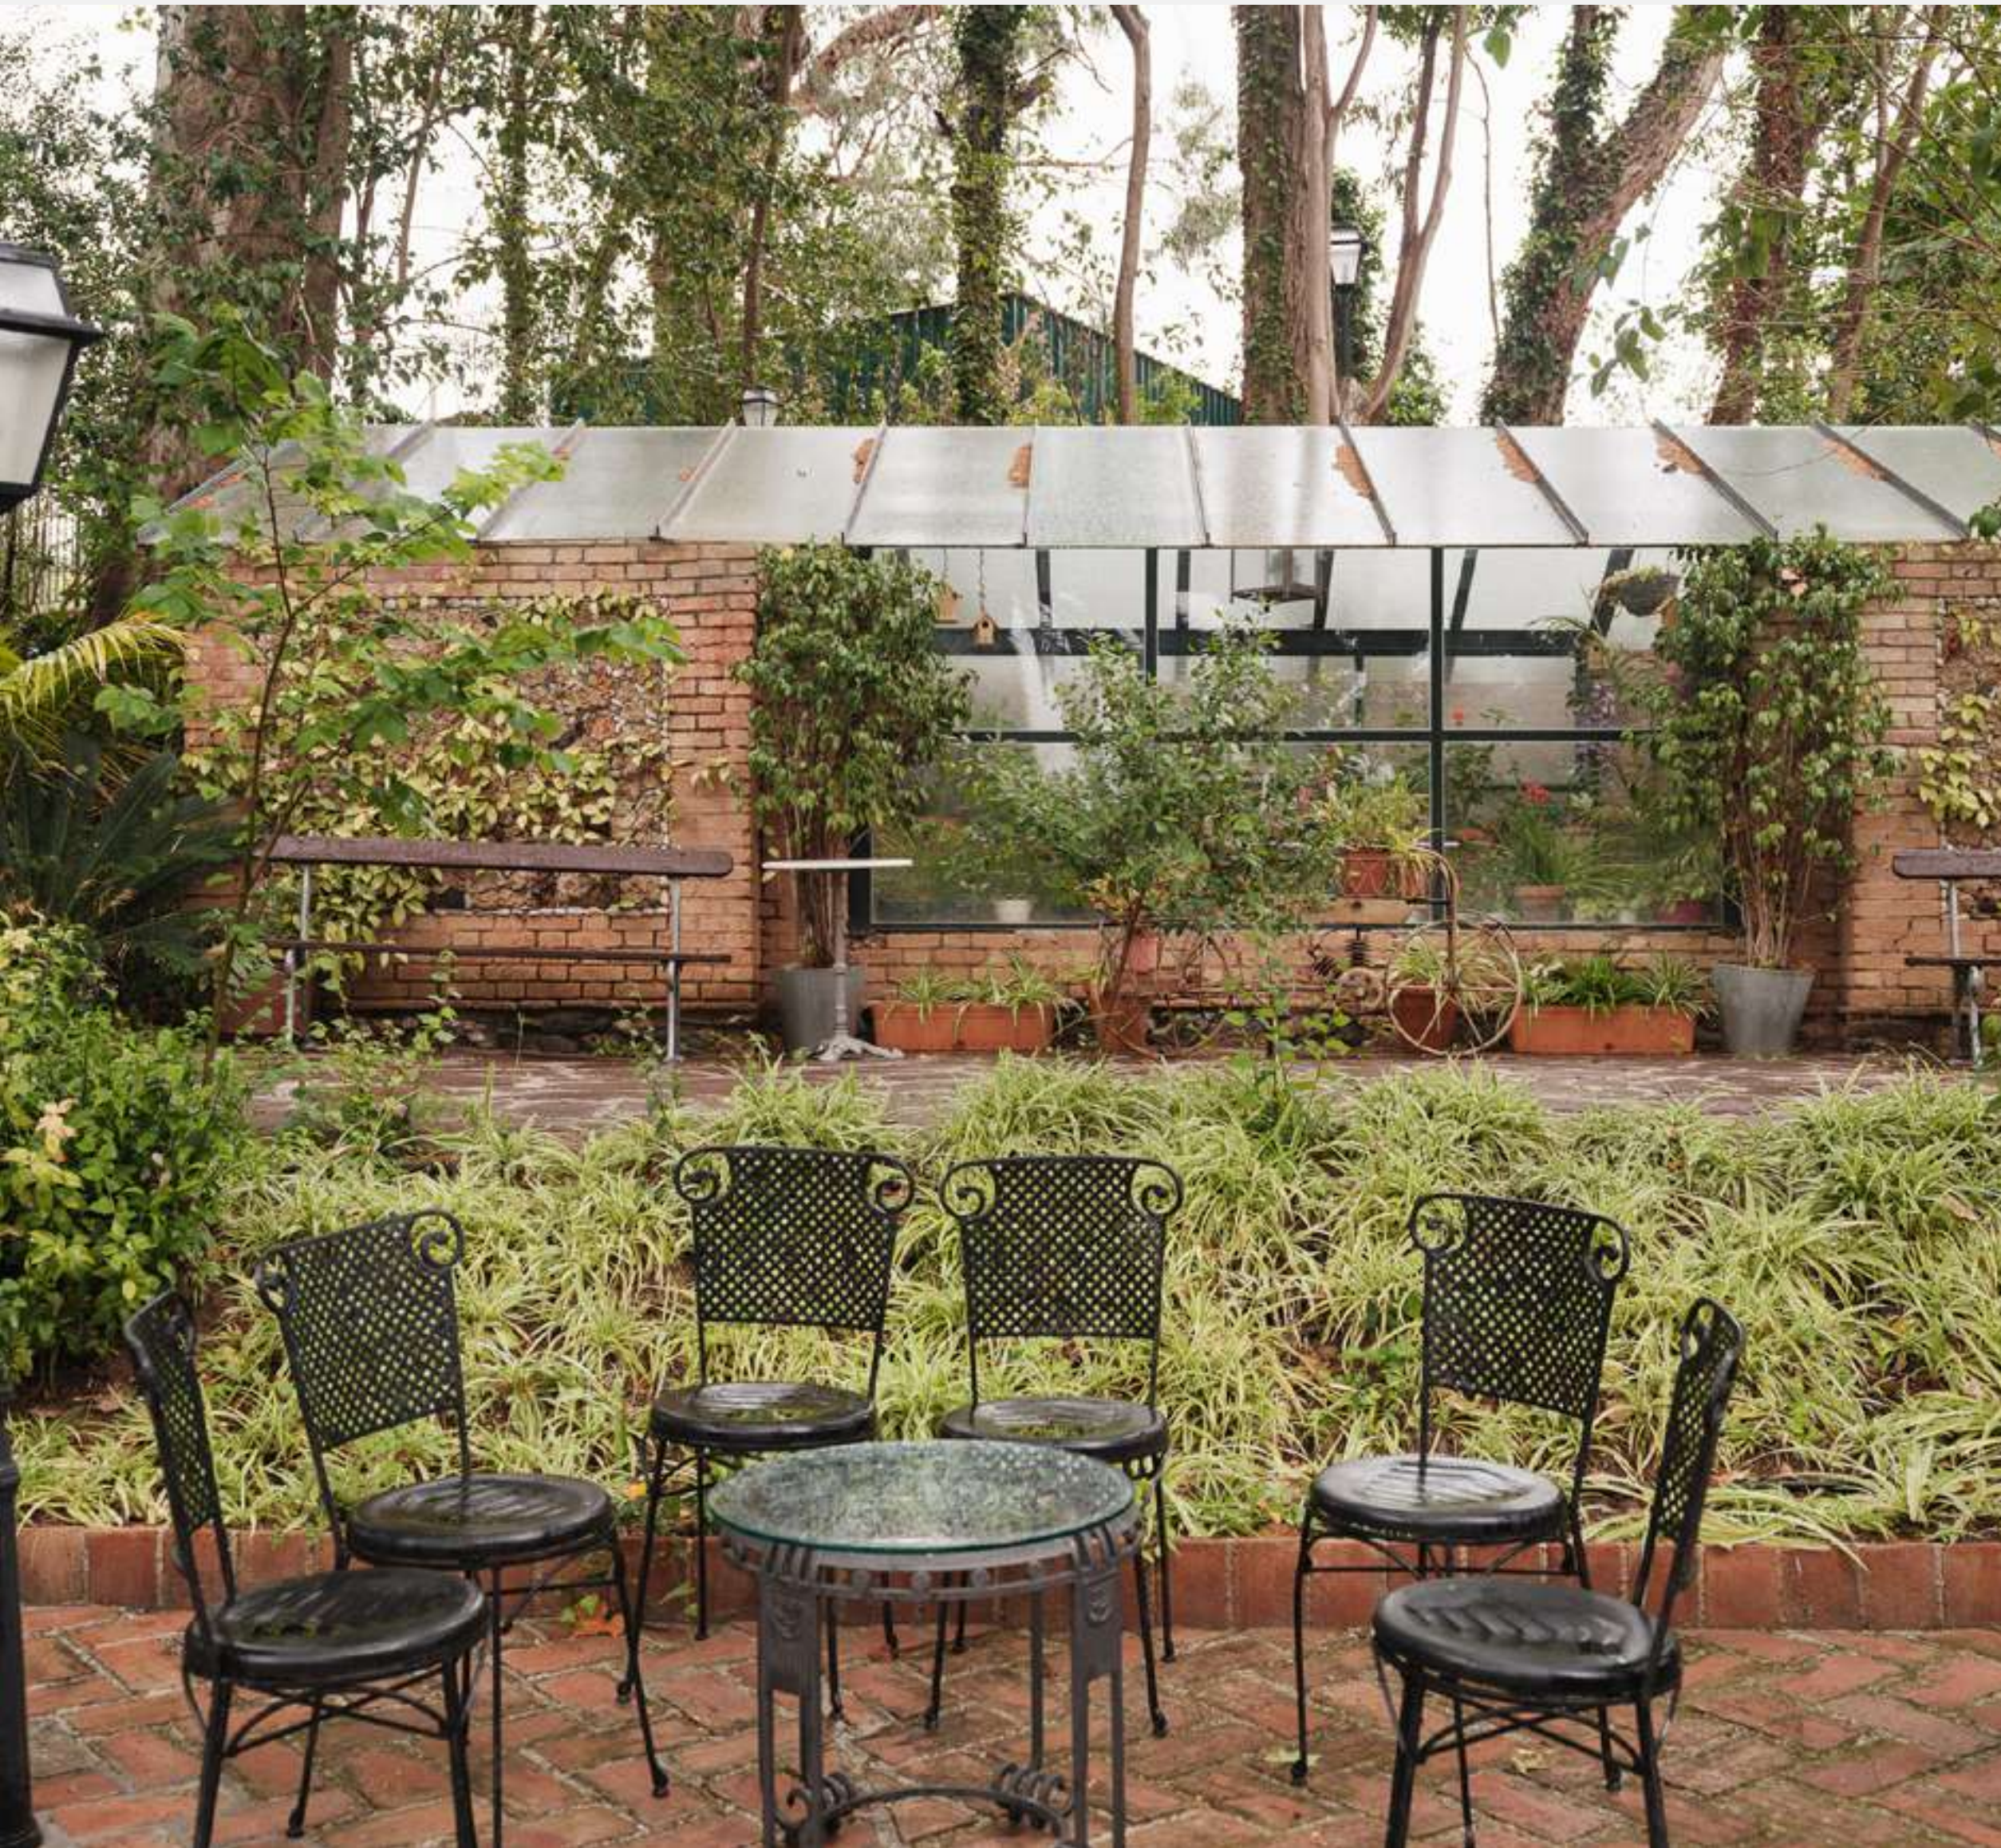

After traversing the lush gardens, imagine entering through the small iron door, surrounded by the warmth of brick and the luxuriant vegetation that welcomes you to Petit Jardín. As you immerse yourself in this oasis, your gaze lifts to the pitched glass roof, allowing sunlight to filter through the plants, creating a charming and magical scene that transports you to a world apart, away from the hustle and bustle of the city.

Whether for an inspiring conference, a networking event, a photo shoot, or a corporate celebration, our Petit Jardín greenhouse and its surroundings offer a unique space where nature and sophistication meet. Come and discover the magic of this reinvented historic place!
